Report description:

Traditional toys and games in Singapore saw slow current value growth in 2023, maintaining the trend seen for a number of years, with low increases across all categories. In terms of the distribution of such products, traditional toys and games stores continue to hold significant appeal for both parents and children alike. Despite the proliferation of online shopping platforms, many families still prefer the hands-on experience and personal interaction that bricks-and-mortar stores offer. Moreov...
