Report description:

Bottled water is seeing strong and stable growth in retail volume terms in 2023 with the category seeing stronger growth compared to 2022. Retail volume sales saw slower growth in 2022 as price inflation saw some consumers looking to make savings, including when it came to bottled water. Still purified bottled water remains the dominant category with it offering the most accessible prices. The category has seen strong growth in 2023 with consumers becoming increasingly conscious of the need to r...
