Report description:

Bottled water recorded off-trade growth in terms of volume sales in Indonesia in 2023, following slight decline in the previous year, 2022. However, despite 2023's positive performance, bottled water has yet to recover to pre-pandemic volume sales levels. Price rises continued throughout the year, though at a slightly more moderated rate than was seen before, and this allowed off-trade value sales to exceed pre-COVID-19 figures.
