Report description:

Substantial inflation experienced in 2022 and 2023 resulted in Czech households facing a tough economic situation, exacerbated by the rising cost of living. Rising prices of products caused Czech consumers to be wary of their expenditure and reduce spending, leading to decrease in the demand for carbonates. On the other hand, one factor that helped demand was the increase in the consumer base caused by the high number of Ukrainian refugees living in the Czech Republic. Overall, with price increa...
