Report description:

Liquid concentrates in Kenya saw off-trade volume growth slow significantly in 2023. Given that these products are primarily consumed at home, this was partly explained by the return to regular routines in the aftermath of COVID-19. Similarly, as the pace of life accelerated with the easing of the pandemic, the category faced increased competition from more convenient ready-to-drink alternatives, especially juice. The downturn also reflected the fact that the traditional perception of liquid con...
