Report description:

In 2023, value sales of home and garden in Australia experienced a marginal decline following an increase the previous year. This was due to several factors, including the higher cost of living. As inflation swept Australia in 2023, it led to a rise in daily expenses, which resulted in reduced disposable incomes for many households. This forced them to prioritise essential needs over discretionary spending on home and garden improvements. Additionally, the Reserve Bank of Australia implemented s...
