Report description:

Homewares in Singapore maintained slow and stable current value growth in 2023. The sustained growth in this year can be attributed to Singaporeans' purchasing behaviour, demonstrating a nuanced relationship with food and cooking. Despite not cooking frequently at home, they exhibit a propensity for acquiring items related to cooking, such as homewares, possibly driven by a sense of preparedness, a penchant for collecting homewares, or aspirations to increase their cooking frequency. In addition...
