Report description:

Growth in juice sales has been severely constrained since 2017, a year in which unit prices saw sharp increases due to the increasing cost of raw materials. Since then, demand has also been hit by the economic and social disruption of the COVID-19 crisis and other global events, though volume sales returned to solidly positive in both the off-trade and the on-trade in 2023. The economic downturn in Tunisia has led to heightened price consciousness amongst consumers, with many households reducing...
