Report description:

Value growth was strong across soft drinks in 2023 thanks in large part to broader inflationary pressures. While fuel costs have stabilised following the initial shock resulting from the Russian invasion of Ukraine early in 2022, the New Zealand Government's temporary removal of excise duty on petrol ended in July 2023. The resultant increased costs were passed on to consumers. In addition, flooding and extreme weather events across New Zealand in early 2023 placed considerable pressure on the c...
