Report description:

In 2023, Guatemalans were eager to resume activities outside the home. The fear of contagion from the COVID-19 Coronavirus was less relevant for the majority of the population, leading to the return of sports activities and socialising. As a result, retail volume sales of sports drinks recorded significant growth. Sports drinks have also been gaining interest among Guatemalans, with consumers not only associating it as a means to rehydrate during or after sports practice, but as a pleasant taste...
