Report description:

There was a slight increase in volume sales in cigarettes in Algeria in 2023, mainly due to population growth, with smoking prevalence falling slightly, particularly among men. Consistent tax increases over the review period dampened volume sales slightly. Some smokers also switched to e-cigarettes, as they are perceived as causing less harm. That being said, there was an increase in smoking prevalence among women, though from a small base. Women see smoking as a sign of liberalisation and equal...
