Report description:

Spectacles in Romania is set to see total volume sales contract for a third consecutive year in 2024, with the rate of decline expected to be slightly steeper than in 2023. Overall demand continues to be depressed by high inflation, in that rising prices and the erosion of purchasing power are discouraging consumers from buying new spectacle lenses, frames and readymade reading glasses unless those they already own have been broken, lost or are no longer sufficient for their needs. Despite falli...
