Report description:

In 2023, the beer market in Algeria registered moderate volume growth. This increase was supported by a rise in the number of inbound arrivals for both business and leisure, as well as natural population growth. Domestic mid-priced lager beers continued to dominate the market, offering the best value for money, which appeals significantly to Algerian drinkers. The economic downturn, however, had a noticeable impact on consumption patterns. Price-sensitive consumers increasingly shifted from on-t...
