Report description:

While overall cider/perry in the US marked 2023 with a loss of volume and value sales, and a loss of share in overall alcoholic drinks, advocates paint a rosier picture for the category's performance and outlook. Much in the same way the larger narrative for other alcoholic drinks categories can be shaped by a handful of brands with massive shares, the performance of cider in the US sits in a similar position, as being quintessentially tied to the performance of Angry Orchard. This can be best e...
