Report description:

The decline of cigarettes sales in Taiwan accelerated in volume terms over 2023 due to several factors, including the expansion of non-smoking areas, the increase in smoking age, and increased penalties to business owners, stakeholders and end users. The limited development of new products has also been a factor, with society's attitude towards smoking shifting as a result. The change in the legal smoking age to 20 years, and the ban on smoking in more areas including all school campuses, kinder...
