Report description:

One of the most significant global issues concerning consumer credit is BNPL (Buy Now Pay Later) services, which enable consumers without sufficient funds to make an immediate purchase, locally known as "thin filers", to obtain goods and pay at a later date. Globally, many thin filers prefer using BNPL over credit cards. However, South Korea exhibits a different trend compared to the rest of the world.

Euromonitor International's Consumer Credit in South Korea report establishes the size and structure of the market for ATMs cards, smart cards, credit cards, debit cards, charge cards, pre-paid cards and store cards. It looks at key players in the market (issuers and operators), number of cards in circulation, numbers transactions and value of transactions. It offers strategic analysis of sector forecasts and trends to watch.
