Report description:

Retail volume sales of tobacco in Hong Kong continued to strongly decline in 2023. Strong tobacco control measures and legislation introduced by the local government have resulted in a highly saturated and mature market. The government introduced yet another increment in tobacco taxation in the 2024 Budget, following a duty increase the previous year. This is due to the aggressive target of lowering smoking prevalence in Hong Kong to 7.8% by 2025, with the government increasingly relying on price...
