Report description:

Cigarettes remains the basic tobacco product for the majority of smokers in Romania and thus it was also the key growth driver for tobacco as a whole in 2023. Widespread distribution across all retail channels in Romania supports the positive performance of tobacco, with the presence of cigarettes on retailer's shelves a must especially for the vast network of small local grocers. In fact, the sale of cigarettes is key to attracting shoppers in these establishments and driving sales in other pro...
