Report description:

Overall, and across almost all categories, traditional toys and games in Switzerland recorded a decline in retail current value sales in 2023. Reduced spending, especially during peak seasons like Christmas, on non-essential products, such as toys and games, severely impacted retail value sales development, albeit remaining at a high level overall. There were spikes in retail current value growth in 2020 and 2021 as the mobility restrictions of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) crisis saw consumers loo...
