Report description:

Despite the economic challenges and negative demographic trends in 2023, alcoholic drinks witnessed moderate total volume growth in North Macedonia. The rising number of inbound tourists boosted the performance of most alcoholic drinks categories in 2023. Inflation remained stubbornly high although price increases were less pronounced in 2023 compared to the previous year. In some cases, prices of alcoholic drinks rose by double-digits causing local consumers to reduce consumption or switch to c...
