Report description:

Beer registered positive volume growth in Turkey in 2023, despite the overall challenging economic conditions of steep prices rises and declining consumer spending power. Whilst volume sales are lower than those seen in 2022, beer benefits from having lower prices compared to spirits, for example, thus helping to support baseline demand. The slower sales can also be attributed to an ongoing normalisation effect following the atypical spikes and crashes seen in sales during the era of the pandemi...
