Report description:

In 2023, demand for cider/perry declined in Colombia where consumption of cider is very low and by far the smallest of the five main alcoholic drinks categories. Most local consumers are not aware of this product, because of its limited availability at retail channels along with the lack of promotion. Cider is typically purchased for celebratory occasions in 750ml bottles but faces competition from other drinks. For celebrations, local consumers typically choose wine, where there is a broad offer...
