Report description:

Cider/perry gained momentum during the COVID-19 pandemic when local consumers stayed home due to fears around contagion. However, Taiwan reopened its national border in 2023, and with a resumption of travel and more opportunities to socialise outside of the home, cider/perry performed better than during the previous year of the review period. However, the category still saw losses across all metrics.

Euromonitor International's Cider/Perry in Taiwan report offers a comprehensive guide to the size and shape of the market at a national level. It provides the latest retail sales data (2019-2023), allowing you to identify the sectors driving growth.
