Report description:

Savoury snacks are seeing a positive performance in Italy in 2024, in both volume and value terms. This is strongly supported by the "snackification" trend, whereby consumers eat fewer, full, sit-down meals and, instead, snack more often during the day. However, the snacks in question tend to be those which are healthy, as part of a more widespread approach to a balanced diet and healthy food. This particular trend is more evident in younger generations of adult consumers, who live busy and fast...
