Report description:

In 2023, snacks in Argentina performed well. Despite the complexity of the economic context, with a triple-digit inflation rate and a drop in GDP, consumption registered a rise in retail volume terms across snacks categories. During the year, with presidential elections to be held in December 2023, the incumbent government reinforced social aid through social assistance programmes and by increasing the number of products within the national Precios Justos programme. Precios Justos is an agreemen...
