Report description:

Overall snacks in Ireland in 2024 is in a state of recovery following the inflationary pressures of 2023. 2023 saw falling growth in retail volume sales, thanks to price increases driven by the heightened cost of key raw materials such as wheat, milk, edible oils, sugar and cocoa, as well as energy and packaging, against a background of rising living costs. These factors combined to force local consumers to cut back on their discretionary spending, including limiting their snacks consumption. In...
