Report description:

Snacks in Romania is seeing a small negative-digit volume decline in 2024, with the volume decline in off-trade sales counteracting the small positive volume gains in on-trade terms. On the other hand, value sales are better supported by inflationary pressures driving up unit prices. That said, baseline demand for snacks continues, driven by the post-pandemic landscape heralding a return to out-of-home, on-the-go lifestyles. Added to which, snacks are associated with moments of pleasure and indu...
