Report description:

Due to a reduction in celebrations and social gatherings, and the impact of inflation, spirits in Mexico showed a slight decrease in total volume terms in 2023, with on-trade sales seeing little movement, and off-trade sales declining. The national drinks tequila and mezcal, along with destilados de agave, play a central role at social events and celebrations, which are the primary consumption occasions, and therefore saw declines in 2023. Other Mexican alcoholic drinks also have strong penetrat...
