Report description:

Spirits was the only category in alcoholic drinks in Nigeria in 2023 to post positive volume growth although most categories recorded volume declines. With negative economic conditions, characterised by high inflation and low spending power, consumers sought out the most affordable drinks, which could be found in spirits. Strong local production of gin, schnapps, liqueurs, and dark rum has kept unit price increases to moderate levels compared to other categories. The use of various spirits for m...
