Report description:

In terms of total volume sales, the spirits category was more or less static in 2023. As with other alcoholic drinks categories, current value growth was much higher as there was a substantial increase in average unit prices. Throughout the production and supply chain, there were increases in costs which were passed onto the consumer. In some respects, consumers were willing to accept the increased prices, since spirits is less price-driven than beer or wine. Moreover, there was already a trend...
