Report description:

Retail volume sales of sweet biscuits, snack bars and fruit snacks in Egypt are set to continue to expand during 2024, with the rate of growth expected to be similar to the previous year. This is in spite of rising prices, driven by rising raw material and operational costs. This suggests that these products continue to resonate with consumers, given the fact that they remain affordable and are available at a range of price points to suit different budgets. Consumers are also replacing chocolate...
