Report description:

Overall, wine in Belgium saw a faster decline in total volume sales in 2023, compared with 2022. The performance towards the end of the review period was impacted strongly by shifting consumer preferences within the dominant still light grape wine category. The main trend in still light grape wine in Belgium is that consumers are a somewhat bored with classic wines. Younger adults of legal drinking age care much less care about renowned or famous brand names, tradition and the appellation of the...
