Report description:

Local consumers showed a growing preference for wine over beer in 2023, which resulted in moderate total volume growth. Consumer demand for still red, white and rose wines was robust, resulting in stable volumes in the off-trade, and even stronger volume growth in the on-trade. In horeca outlets consumers are seeking wines to drink with more sophisticated cuisines and to elevate the dining experience. In these scenarios, wine consumption is more suitable than beer consumption. Significant price...
