Report description:

Rising production, packaging, and logistical costs in Serbia contributed to further price growth in alcoholic drinks during 2023. Consumer price sensitivity was more acute as the rate of inflation continued to rise year on year resulting in higher costs of living. Many Serbian consumers reduced the frequency of visits to the on-trade in 2023. The economising trend also led to a greater emphasis on price comparisons and a willingness to explore multiple retailers in search of the most affordable...
