Report description:

In 2023, alcoholic drinks in Tanzania has been facing significant shifts due to the steep rise in the cost of living. Many consumers have down-traded from premium to lower-priced brands to manage their budgets, while mid to higher-income individuals have continued to afford their preferred beers, maintaining stability in that category. Manufacturers and distributors have increased prices to counter rising production, taxation, energy, fuel, and transportation costs, hence passing these expenses...
