Report description:

Savoury snacks in Bosnia and Herzegovina faces a complex situation in 2024. Consumer demand stagnates, leading to only modest retail volume growth. This can be attributed to the growing influence of health and wellness trends. Consumers are increasingly opting for healthier snacking alternatives like dried fruits and protein/energy bars, which are experiencing flourishing demand, and cutting back on carbs typically found in savoury snacks. Despite the decline in volume, the category manages to a...
