Report description:

Like other product categories in the country, wine in Costa Rica experienced high unit price increases in 2022, with official figures indicating a steep CPI increase of 11.2%. Despite these pricing developments, wine saw a positive performance both in value and volume terms in 2023, bolstered in large part by a recovery in the on-trade channel, coupled with the strong return of tourism. Wine remains fashionable among consumers and, given the ongoing health and wellness trend in the country, wine...
