Report description:

Retail value sales of chocolate confectionery in Australia continue to rise in 2024, despite a further fall in overall demand. Chocolate prices have been a significant issue globally, due to production issues with cocoa beans driving up the cost of production. A combination of climate and economic issues is resulting in cocoa production suffering in West Africa, a region which produces between 60-70% of cocoa beans used globally. As a result, the growth in the average unit price of chocolate con...
