Report description:

Chocolate confectionery sales in Ecuador are highly seasonal, with a significant portion concentrated in the last quarter due to Christmas celebrations. During this time, it is customary to exchange chocolate as gifts and fill Christmas bags for children. Unfortunately, the surge in insecurity witnessed in late 2023 significantly impacted sales during this crucial period. People were hesitant to leave their homes, leading to a decline in sales. This negative trend continued into January 2024, co...
