Report description:

Chocolate confectionery is relatively small in Pakistan in terms of value share. However, it is expected to perform strongly in 2024, with healthy constant value and volume growth, only partly explained by population growth. This positive picture is in spite of continuing soaring inflation, though growth has eased from the previous year. The economy is showing signs of stabilisation and this is expected to boost consumer confidence. The currency is also more stable, which is expected to benefit...
