Report description:

In the first half of 2024, volume sales of headphones in Denmark experienced a decline but remained relatively comparable to 2023 levels. The product area faced significant challenges due to cost-of-living pressures, a sluggish economic climate, and dampened household sentiment. Despite these hurdles, headphones continued to be viewed as an affordable luxury for households. Unlike big-ticket items such as computers and TVs, headphones are priced lower, allowing consumers to indulge in luxury and...
