Report description:

Ice cream is expected to be the standout snack performer in Uzbekistan in 2024, with double-digit percentage constant value growth, as well as healthy volume growth. Local consumers are actively moving from low-cost ice cream options to higher quality offerings. With consumers looking for higher quality, one of the leading local producers, Vazira Biznes, has switched from plant fats to natural fats, condensed milk, butter and cream, which had led to significant price increases, though consumers...
