Report description:

Even as inflationary pressures plagued packaged food across the board, the allure of sweet treats kept consumers buying sugar confectionery in the US in 2023, and both retail volume and current value growth are set to be maintained in 2024. Consumer choice favours new products, with multi-textured, bright colours, and assertive flavours driving up sales. Ferrara's success with the extension of its Nerds brand to Gummy Clusters and liquorice rope speckled with its original confectionery seems poi...
