Report description:

In 2024, retail volume sales of home video in the Czech Republic are projected to decline. Czech consumers continue to favour larger TVs with better image quality and smart functions in 2024. As a result, OLED TVs continue to grow in popularity while LCD TVs decline. The decreasing average unit price of OLED TVs makes them more affordable for Czech consumers. However, overall home video volume sales are set to see a further decline in 2024, as consumers remain cautious about larger purchases giv...
