Report description:

In 2024, home video in Turkey is poised to experience modest volume growth, primarily propelled by the rising popularity of OLED TVs, a relatively new category in the market. Conversely, sales of LCD TVs are anticipated to decline in volume, attributed to a stagnation in sales following a period of positive growth in the previous year. Early purchases made by consumers to avoid anticipated price hikes, coupled with the introduction of QLED and Google TVs, drive sales during 2023, resulting in a...
