Report description:

Mobile phones in Egypt faced a sharp decline in sales volume, with a significant drop in 2023, followed by an additional decline in the first half of 2024. This continued downturn is primarily due to ongoing import restrictions and high inflation rates, despite a temporary stabilisation of prices following a USD35 billion development deal with the UAE. Although this deal helped prevent abrupt price hikes, the Egyptian government remains cautious in allocating foreign currency, prioritising essen...
