Report description:

Portable players are one of the few consumer electronics that are expected to see an increase in volume sales in Romania in 2024. This is due to the healthy performance of wireless speakers. There is an increasing range of brands available in the wireless speaker space and this is driving down price and supporting volume sales. There are both high-end and lower-end brands available. In addition, consumers appreciate wireless speakers for their portability, connectivity and sound quality and they...
