Report description:

The market for snacks in Malaysia is set to decline in retail volume terms in 2024, following the sluggish performance of the previous year. Growth is being impacted by the increasing prices of raw materials (notably, cocoa and sugar), sparked by the ramifications of the Israel-Hamas war and the conflict in Ukraine. Energy prices are also likely to soar, as the local government looks to wind up its blanket fuel subsidy programme in order to reduce its mounting expenditure and to facilitate a s...
