Report description:

Retail volume sales of home video in Nigeria look set to record a decline in 2024. The growth of televisions in Nigeria is significantly dampened by high inflation and a scarcity of foreign exchange. These economic challenges have resulted in increased prices for LCD TVs, compounded by supply chain disruptions due to the Israel-Hamas war and issues with piracy affecting imported goods. Consequently, consumers are prioritising their spending on essentials, leading to an extended replacement cycle...
