Johor Bahru is the capital city of Johor State (Johor) in Malaysia. The city of Johor Bahru has been identified as one of the key competitive cities for economic development, other than Kuala Lumpur, Bandar Kuching and Kota Kinabalu. Johor Bahru metropolitan area includes the Johor Bahru district, Kulai Municipal Council, and parts of Pontian District Council. In 2023, the metropolitan area's economy grew by 4.5%, a slowdown from the previous year's 12.7% growth. This modest increase was driven by the release of pent-up demand following the pandemic. Despite a significant rebound in the tourism, retail, and manufacturing sectors due to the reopening of the China and Singapore borders, economic activity remained moderate. The construction sector also experienced steady growth, supported by investments in key transportation, industrial, and renewable energy projects
